GEAUX ARTS BALL

bringing art to life

Sponsorships

In a community known for its cultural arts, what better way to spend an evening than bringing art to life in living, breathing re-creations of the some of the world's best known paintings and sculptures at the 4th Annual Geaux Arts Ball. Your contributions will help the St. Tammany Art Association continue to promote established and emerging artists while bringing quality arts education to our schools and community. In fact, some of the living art exhibits will be featured at schools throughout the community.
