Opening Reception:
Saturday, February 11, 2012
2pm – 5pm

st.tammanyartassociation
320 north columbia street covington, la 70433

ID: All artwork must have identification form attached to the work.

Specifications:

All media, two and three-dimensional. No artwork may exceed 48" x 72" in any direction including frame or presentation.

All two-dimensional work must be ready to hang with wire attached to the back (no saw tooth hangers).

Entries: Each participant may enter two works. Due to space limitations, only one piece is guaranteed for exhibition.

Final selections will be made by STAA member and artist, Roy Pfister. Mr. Pfister began his training at Tulane University and attended New Orleans Academy of Art in the French Quarter. He has studied under such noted teachers as Jon McCrady, Leonard Flettrich and John Ambrose. Specializing in graphite, pastel, and oil portraits, he has won many awards for his landscape paintings and has built his reputation as an artist. His expertise has grown nationally and his portraits and landscapes hang in many collections throughout the United States and Europe.

Sales: A 30% commission will be retained by STAA on the sale of any artwork. Please price your work accordingly. The STAA reserves the right to reproduce art for use in promotional material. Your work should be for sale.

LIABILITY: All entries to the Members' Show will be handled with care; however, STAA and the Member Show Committee will not be responsible for any loss or damage to artwork consigned to the organization for the member's exhibition.
